ECLIPSE GAVE TWO-THIRDS DARKNESS

Savant Shows One-Third of Sun's Light Was Seen Despite Shadow

New York, Jan. 28.—Dr. Y. Madar, of the National Laboratories, Hampton, Va., has announced today the first measurements of sun light taken throughout the total eclipse of Jan. 28. The measurements were made with a spectrometer, which looked up with a Western microscope, showing that at least one-third of the sun's light had been seen of from the earth by the moon.

SURPRISE TO LAYMEN

This will prove a surprise to many lay observers in the area of the greatest totality, who had imagined the extinction of light as being much larger. But Mr. Madar and his assistants have been surprised to find that the light was not extinguished as they expected.

The chart of the light measurements showed every minute the drop and increase in the intensity of the sun's rays. The light was extinguished in a period of one second or less. It is that the moon did not cover the sun's disk during the eclipse.

VALUABLE REMAINS

Dr. Madar's measurements show that the sun's light was not extinguished as they expected. The light was extinguished in a period of one second or less. It is that the moon did not cover the sun's disk during the eclipse.

Kingless Throne and Nobody Wants the Crown

London, Jan. 28.—(N.A.S.)—A throne is going begging today in the Balkans. Albanian Muslims are seeking a king for the throne, but no one wants the crown.

The throne has been offered to Lord Maitland and Sir Charles Hamilton, both of whom are of the House of Lords, and both have refused.

"There is no salary" Sir Charles explained. "Only one thing goes with the throne—certain trouble, and of almost certain assassination."

WIDOW AWARDED $3,622 FOR NURSING INVALID

Mrs. Ida L. Barker, widow of a widely known Concord physician and now a resident of Southbury, was awarded $3,622 by a jury in the United States District Court in her suit for compensation for nursing for eleven years, Charles J. Williams of Concord, who died at Mrs. Barker's home.

Mrs. Barker sued for nearly $25,000. Attorney Jasper N. Johnson, Mrs. Barker's counsel, claiming that there was a verbal contract for the suit must to pay $40 a week and that he paid only $25 a week for about only. The defendant was Mrs. Benjamin L. Reed of New York, an administrator of Mr. Williams' estate.

RECIPES NO. 67.
FISH BLUE PLATE SPECIAL.
2 pounds halibut, cod or haddock.
1 tablespoon vinegar.
1 cup rice.
1 quart water.

2 quarts raw spinach.
2 tablespoons butter.
1 large bunch beets or
1 pint canned beets.
Salt.
Pepper.
Minced parsley.
Drawn butter gravy.

Tie the fish in cheesecloth and boil until tender a water to which one tablespoonful of salt and the vinegar have been added. Cook the rice in boiling salted water until tender. Chop the spinach and the beets coarsely and heat in a saucepan with a little butter.

spoonful of butter, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful of salt, and a few grains of pepper for each. When all are done, place the fish in the centre of the plaster, and arrange around it mounds of rice, spinach and beets in rotation. Sprinkle all with minced parsley. Nerve with drawn butter gravy. The beets may be left whole, if preferred.

HADDOCK WITH POTATOES AND CHEESE.
 3 cups shredded cooked haddock.
 3 cups cold cooked potatoes.
 1½ teaspoon salt.
 ¼ teaspoon pepper.
 1 pint milk.
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine.
 2 tablespoons flour.
 ½ cup cheese.
 ¼ teaspoon paprika.
 Combine the shredded haddock and cold potatoes or line pieces. Melt a little sauce by melting the butter and adding the flour. Cook until it begins to bubble, and then add the cold milk gradually. Cook until of creamy consistency. Cut the cheese, cut into small pieces and cook until the cheese is melted. Add salt, pepper and paprika. Mix with the butter and potatoes. Put into a buttered shallow baking dish and bake in a very hot oven (450° F.) until it is brown.

Q.—I heard a station in New York the morning of Jan. 8. Can you tell me who it was? W. L. S.

A.—This was probably WJZ, which heard the 33 Temps making news broadcasting during the night of Jan. 8.

Q.—What resistance value of a resistor should be used for the 7C5 pentode? W. L. S.

A.—From 16 to 20 ohms is all right.

Q.—My Supermet set gives me a signal on the local station but nothing on distance. What can I get better results? R.E.J.

A.—If your set is currently used and you have a good crystal, you could get more than this local station, however, than the whole set depends upon the crystal. The trouble with the Supermet is that since crystals vary to a great extent, the results are not always good. Watch this paper for some new type reflex meter.

Q.—On any showing of

Q.—I picked up a station sounded like WKAT but could write any such station. Could it be into Rico?
A.—This was probably an
KQO, located in Porto Rico.
Q.—Will the Listener come at

Q.—What is a good method for checking policy batteries? P. E. K.
A.—Disconnect all cables and ground the negative side and then listen to the battery. If you hear a crackling sound you may be sure that the noise is either in the cables or in the battery. If upon checking you find no loose connections or bad cables, then trouble is probably in the battery. Looking points of the battery may be the cause of the trouble.
